CON File #26-9-13799-X

Dear Mr. Orr:

On October 15, 2026, the West Virginia Health Care Authority (Authority) received notification of exemption from Certificate of Need (CON) review from PursueCare, LLC and XRHealth, Inc., in accordance with W. Va. Code St. R. §65-29-3, for the acquisition of PursueCare, LLC by XRHealth, Inc.. No change is the service that is currently being provided. In providing notification, the Applicant also submitted the required exemption application pursuant to W. Va. Code §16-2D-11.

In support of the exemption, the Applicant submits that it is exempt from CON review pursuant to W. Va. Code §16-2D-11(b)(19), which states "Providing behavioral health facilities and services."

The Authority has reviewed the exemption application and found that it contains the required information. The Applicant is directed to notify the Authority in writing upon completion of the project. The notification shall contain a brief description of the project, the assigned case file number, the date of the completion of the project and the date the project became or will become operational.

The Applicant is responsible for the submission of all required financial disclosure information to the Authority as set forth in W. Va. Code St. R. §65-13-1, et seq. and W. Va. Code §16-29B-24. Please contact Eddie Fulks at (304)558-7000 to obtain information and due dates for the financial disclosure requirements.

The provider must meet the standards and applicable laws, rules, and regulations when submitting an application for licensure to OHFLAC.

Sincerely,

Gordon C. Lane, Jr.
Interim Executive Director
